

Feedback Coding Project – SSA

The code was very well structured and organised, with good comments.

There was a good selection of vulnerabilities and a discussion (and demo) of mitigations. There was good evidence of testing although limited evidence of automated tests.

The readme file was well structured, with a good use of screenshots. It was well written, with good grammar and very little evidence of typos. Good list of sources.